DIVISION 1.

Administrator of human resources means administrator of human resources or his/her designee.

Appointing authority means any elected official of the county or head of an office of the county government specifically charged by the appropriate elected official with the responsibility of appointing and/or dismissing personnel employed under his direction.
Board means the civil service merit board.

Classified service means those positions of employment contained in and regulated by the provisions of the civil service merit system.

(Priv. Acts 1971, Ch. 110, § 2; Ord. No. 304, § 3, 7-25-05)

Cross references: Definitions and rules of construction generally, § 1-2.

Sec. 12-27. Civil service merit system established.

There is hereby established a civil service merit system for classified employees of the county.
(Priv. Acts 1971, Ch. 110, § 1)

Sec. 12-28. Unclassified and classified services.

(a) The job positions of the county are hereby divided into the unclassified and classified services.

(b) The unclassified service shall include:

(1) Officials elected by popular vote and persons appointed to fill vacancies in such elective offices;

(2) Members of duly established boards and commissions of the county;

(3) Any person retained by the county on a consulting basis and any professional person hired in his/her professional capacity as determined by the board;

(4) Any employee of the county whose employment is on a temporary basis;

(5) Any person who provides services to the county on a volunteer basis or who receives no compensation for such services;

(6) Such person occupying the position of department head, deputy department head, chief clerk, manager responsible for policy-making, personal assistant to a department head or personal secretary to a department head as is designated by an appointing authority and approved by the board. The intent of this provision is to restrict positions in the unclassified service to those which involve sensitive policy-making duties. In granting its approval the board shall consider this intent as well as the size of the department in question. A list of these additional positions shall be prepared and maintained by the secretary.

(7) All county employees of the Shelby County Head Start Program.

(b) The classified service shall comprise all offices and positions of employment for the county not specifically included in the unclassified service.

(Priv. Acts 1971, Ch. 110, § 9; Priv. Acts 1984, Ch. 192, § 2; Ord. No. 281, 2-23-94)

(d) Unclassified positions are excluded from the civil service merit system and are considered non-civil service. The classified/unclassified status of a job position is determined when the job position is initially established and/or each time the duties, responsibilities and scope of the position are reviewed by human resources. The classified/unclassified status may be changed upon determination by the administrator of human resources that the job position duties, scope and relationship to the appointing authority have changed significantly to warrant such change in status. The board must approve a position change from classified status to unclassified status.

Sec. 12-29. Classification plan.

(a) All offices and positions of employment included in the system shall be listed and classed and a written plan of such will be prepared and maintained.

(b) Such classification plan will contain for each position a written description of the duties and responsibilities of each individual office or position. Each office or position shall be assigned to an appropriate class of positions, each class consisting of those offices or positions which have the same or reasonably similar duties and responsibilities.

Written specifications will be given to each class and must include the title of the class; a general description of the duties and responsibilities of the offices and positions within the class; the minimum requirements of education, training, experience, licensing or certification, and any other qualifications necessary to hold an office or position within the class. As far as practicable, the lines of promotion to and from each class should be included in the classification plan.

(c) Under the provisions of this section, a class may be comprised of a single office or position.

(Priv. Acts 1971, Ch. 110, § 10)

Sec. 12-30. Schedule of compensation.

(a) For each class of positions in the system established in the classification plan, a determination shall be made within human resources of the rates paid for similar services in both the public and private sectors, where applicable, and of other information pertaining to proper rates of compensation, and a schedule of compensation will accordingly be established. Such schedule shall show for each job classification a minimum salary rate, a maximum salary rate and such intermediate rate or rates as are equitable and proper and shall be included in the county salary administration program.

(b) The financial condition of the county and the personnel policies of the county, in addition to other relevant factors, will be taken into consideration in the assignment of a minimum rate for each class of position.

(c) The schedule of compensation may include, in addition to the minimum, maximum and intermediate merit rates, a rate of pay to be based on longevity of service with the county, and a rate of pay based on cost of living factors.

(Priv. Acts 1971, Ch. 110, § 11)

Sec. 12-31. Personnel policies.

Such written statements of policy will set out all pertinent information concerning working conditions such as working hours, attendance, holidays, leaves of absence, vacations, compensation and administration, in addition to residency requirements, minimum age requirements, programs available to employees, and any and all other information which properly may be the subject of such statement of policy.

(Priv. Acts 1971, Ch. 110, § 12)Sec. 12-32. Application forms.

Applications for employment to a classified position shall be prepared and maintained in the office of the secretary or such other public and convenient place as is designated. The forms shall require such information as will reveal the qualifications of the applicant for appointment in the system. All applicants for appointment in the system will be required to complete the appropriate employment application form. Such additional and further investigation concerning the applicant may be conducted as is necessary and proper.

(Priv. Acts 1971, Ch. 110, § 13)

Sec. 12-33. Examination; bonus for veterans.

- (a) Open competitive and promotional selection procedures shall be prepared and conducted by or under the direction of the administrator of human resources.
- (b) Selection procedures may include, but not be limited to, rating of training and experience; written, oral, physical or performance assessment or examination or other measures which are technically sound; or any combination as determined by the administrator of human resources.
- (c) The examination process or selection procedures may take into consideration such factors as education, experience, relevancy of recent work experience, knowledge, skill, physical fitness or any other qualifications which are job-related, which may be applied equitably, and which in the judgment of the administrator of human resources enter into the determination of the relative suitability of applicants. The minimum performance or requirements on which eligibility is attained shall be established by the administrator of human resources. A minimum qualifying standard shall be established for each aspect of the selection process.
- (d) Any applicant for original appointment into the system achieving at least a minimum passing score on the competitive examination process, who shall have received an honorable discharge from any branch of the armed forces of the United States and who served in time of war or national emergency as declared by the President of the United States, shall be entitled to receive a bonus of additional points, the number of which to be determined by the board, which shall be added to his competitive examination score.

(Priv. Acts 1971, Ch. 110, § 14)

Sec. 12-34. Eligibility lists.

Employment and promotion eligibility lists for the various classes of positions in the system shall be maintained as are necessary or desirable to meet the needs of the system. These lists shall contain the names of persons meeting acceptable qualification standards. Certificates of eligibles drawn from these lists shall be provided, as required, to the appointing authorities for the filling of vacancies in accord with the provisions of this article.

(Priv. Acts 1971, Ch. 110, § 15)

Sec. 12-35. Appointment; probationary period.

(a) Whenever a position in the classified service is to be filled, the appropriate appointing authority shall so notify the secretary. Notices shall be posted for any examinations given by the county government to establish promotion eligibility for civil service employment. Such notice shall be posted at least 30 calendar days prior to the examination.

(b) The county mayor may, upon written notice to an affected department head, waive the posting requirement of this section.

The secretary shall forward to the appointing authority a certificate of eligibles drawn from the applicants eligible for the class or grade to which such position belongs, and the appointing authority may forthwith appoint to such position one of such persons whose name appears on the certificate. If the appointing authority chooses not to appoint one of such persons whose name appears on the certificate, the appointing authority must state in writing the reason(s) and may request the secretary review the list of applicants to determine if others may be eligible who were not included on the original certificate of eligibles. If it is determined that no others were excluded from the original certificate or that those excluded are not acceptable to the appointing authority, the appointing authority may redraft the qualifications for the position and repost the position in accordance with the provisions of this Act. If the appointing authority chooses to appoint an eligible applicant, such appointment shall be for a probationary period of six months, commencing with the first working day. Certain positions require pre-service training periods greater than six months and are specifically so designated by policy under the County Personnel Management System. During the probationary period, the newly appointed employee may be dismissed with or without cause, and such dismissed employee shall have no recourse as is otherwise provided in section 12-42. Upon application of the appointing authority, the human resources administrator may extend the probationary period for any newly appointed employee for a period not to exceed an additional three months. If the employee has not been discharged prior to the expiration of the period of probation, his/her appointment to the classified service shall be deemed complete

(d) Employees who have not completed original appointment probation, or who are on disciplinary probation or suspension, shall not apply for positions posted as closed promotional positions.

(Priv. Acts 1971, Ch. 110, § 16)

State law references: Similar provisions, T.C.A. § 7-51-1301.

Sec. 12-36. Extraordinary and emergency appointments.

Notwithstanding the other provisions of this article, in order to prevent the stoppage of business or to meet extraordinary conditions or emergency, an appointing authority may appoint any individual to a classified position for a period not to exceed 90 calendar days and only until regular appointment can be made under the provisions of this article.

(Priv. Acts 1971, Ch. 110, § 17)

Sec. 12-37. Provisional appointments.

(a) Should there arise an urgent or pressing need for filling a vacancy in any position in the classified service and the secretary is unable to provide the appropriate appointing authority with the name of an applicant eligible for the vacancy, the appointing authority may provisionally appoint an individual to fill the vacancy. Such provisional appointment shall continue only until an appropriate eligible list can be established and submitted to the appointing authority, but in no event for more than 90 calendar days.

(b) When, in the opinion of an appointing authority, there arises the urgent or pressing need for a new permanent position in his office or department not contemplated in the existing classification plan, he may provisionally appoint an individual to fill such position. Such provisional appointment shall continue only until the classification plan can be amended to include such position, if same is found to be necessary or desirable, and regular appointment can be made under the provisions of this article. Immediately following such provisional appointment, the necessity or desirability of inclusion of such position within the system shall be studied and determined. In no event shall such provisional appointment exceed 90 calendar days.

(Priv. Acts 1971, Ch. 110, § 18)

Sec. 12-38. Promotion.

(a) Vacancies occurring in the classified service may be filled by the promotion of those officers and employees of a lesser class of position within the system who are otherwise qualified for the position and certified as eligible by the secretary. In filling any vacancy arising in an office or department, an appointing authority may not restrict his/her consideration of applicants to those individuals presently in the classified service, provided that the names of applicants considered have been certified as eligible for promotion by the secretary.

(b) Following a promotional appointment, the promoted employee shall serve a three-month probationary period in that position, at the successful completion of which the promotion shall be deemed complete. However, promotion to certain positions requiring a specific pre-service training period will be governed by the established pre-service training period for the position. Should the appointing authority determine that the service of an employee in a position to which he was promoted is unsatisfactory within the three-month probationary period, he/she shall reinstate the employee to the position which he occupied immediately prior to the promotion. However, for employees hired after the date of the Act's revision, if the position is unavailable, the employee will be placed on unpaid leave for up to 90 calendar days to allow the employee to apply for other available positions for which the employee is qualified. Unsuccessful placement in the classified service during the 90 day period will result in employment separation.

(c) Should the promotion of any employee result in his/her exclusion from the classified service, he/she shall thereafter be entitled to reinstatement in the system at the same or equivalent position which he/she held immediately prior to the promotion, upon 30 calendar days' notice to the board of his/her desire to be reinstated in the system. Provided, however, the aforementioned notice to the board must be given no later than 60 calendar days after the date of the correspondence notifying the employee that the appointment has been terminated and/or discontinued. Additionally, this privilege shall not be granted to any employee who has been terminated from employment because of a conviction or a guilty plea to a misdemeanor involving either theft or act of moral turpitude or a felony associated with his/her employment with Shelby County Government. The limitations to the privilege of fall-back rights shall be applied prospectively from the date of enactment, not retroactively.

The following limitations set forth below regarding fallback rights shall be applied prospectively to employees hired after the date of the Act's revision, not retroactively. For such employees, fallback rights are only applicable if all of the following conditions are met:

1. Current position assignment in the unclassified service must have occurred immediately from classified service under the control of the same appointing authority.
2. Total length of service in the unclassified service is not greater than the total length of service in the classified service.
3. Total length of service in the unclassified service is not greater than 2 consecutive full terms of the appointing authority.

Equivalent classification level means a salary grade not less than the last salary grade held in the classified service. Pay rate upon fallback in the same salary grade level will not be less than the average pay of the employees in that grade under the appointing authority, but not less than the pay rate earned by the employee in the last classified service position held. Pay rate upon fallback in a higher salary grade will be determined by established rule covering initial assignment (new hire) under the existing county salary policy at the time of fallback. Should a position at an equivalent or lesser classification level be unavailable, the employee will be placed on unpaid leave for up to 90 calendar days to allow the employee to apply for other available positions for which the employee is qualified. Unsuccessful placement in the classified service during the 90 day period will result in employment separation.

- (d) (d) Employees who have not completed original appointment probation, including extended original appointment probation, or who are on disciplinary probation or suspension, shall not apply for positions posted as closed promotion positions.

(Priv. Acts 1971, Ch. 110, § 19; Priv. Acts 1984, Ch. 192, § 3; Ord. No. 293, 1-10-05)

Sec. 12-39. Service rating.

The secretary, in cooperation with the various appointing authorities of the county, shall prepare for app formal procedures for rating the performance of the individual employees in the system. Rating procedures shall be so designed as to give a fair evaluation of the quality and quantity of the employee's work performed. The service rating for the individual employee will be based on periodic reports of the appointing authority and made on no less than an annual basis. No employee will be eligible for a promotion in rank or compensation who does not maintain a satisfactory service rating. An unsatisfactory service rating may be a basis for disciplinary action to be taken against the employee. Employee competency in performing job responsibilities may be a factor in making pay adjustments within the structure of the county salary administration program. Nothing in this provision shall prevent the appointing authority from utilizing additional management tools to measure employee performance and providing feedback to employees in relation to the quality or improvement of the employee's job performance.

(Priv. Acts 1971, Ch. 110, § 20)

Sec. 12-40. Appointments permanent.

Except as otherwise provided in this article, no employee in the classified service who is not a durational employee and who shall have successfully completed the prescribed period of probation and therefore shall have been permanently appointed or inducted into the system under the provisions of this article shall be dismissed, suspended, demoted or subjected to other discipline, except for cause.

(Priv. Acts 1971, Ch. 110, § 21)

Sec. 12-41. Disciplinary action.

For unsatisfactory performance of duties or other just cause, an employee in the classified service may be subject to the following discipline by the appointing authority:

- (3) Reduction in pay within allowable range for class of employee;
- (4) Demotion to a lower classification;
- (5) Dismissal from service;
- (6) Retirement under the terms of the retirement law (T.C.A. § 8-35-101 et seq.), as applicable.

(Priv. Acts 1971, Ch. 110, § 22)

Sec. 12-42. Reply to discipline; appeal from discipline.

(a) Any employee in the system may be subjected to discipline, as provided in section 12-41, by the appointing authority, after his/her appointment or promotion is complete by written order stating specifically the reasons for such discipline. Such order shall be signed by the appointing authority, and his/her designee, and directed to the individual employee involved and a copy thereof directed to the secretary for inclusion in a permanent service record to be maintained for each employee in the system. Any employee so disciplined may respond, by directing a reply in writing to the secretary within 7 calendar days of receipt of the order of discipline, with a copy of such reply to the appointing authority. Such reply of the employee shall be maintained in his/her permanent service record.

(b) Any employee demoted in rank or compensation, suspended without pay for a period exceeding 10 calendar days, or dismissed, may, within 7 calendar days after service of the order of demotion, suspension or dismissal as hereinabove provided, appeal to the board.

(c) Immediately upon service of any order of suspension or dismissal, the employee shall stand relieved of all duties of his/her office and shall not reassume such duties until the expiration of any suspension or until reinstated from suspension or dismissal by the board. Immediately upon service of any order of demotion in rank or compensation, the employee shall assume the rank or rate of compensation to which he was demoted.

(d) The board shall, within a maximum of 45 calendar days from the filing of the appeal, commence a hearing hereon and shall thereupon fully hear and determine the matter and shall affirm, modify or revoke such order of discipline. A hearing may be postponed or continued upon the written request of the employee and/or the written or oral request of the employee's attorney. The appellant shall be entitled to appear personally, to produce evidence, and to have counsel and to a public hearing. The finding and decision of the board shall be certified to the appointing authority from whose order the appeal is taken and shall forthwith be enforced and followed by him, but no such demotion in rank or compensation, suspension or dismissal, if appealed to the board, shall be considered final until the finding and decision of the board shall be so certified. Any form of discipline not appealed to the board shall be so certified. Any form of discipline not appealed to the board shall be considered final as of the date of the service of the order of discipline on the employee.

(e) (e) The board is required to establish written procedures necessary for the efficient administration of the appeal process set forth in this section. Such written procedures are to be approved by the board of county commissioners.

(Priv. Acts 1971, Ch. 110, § 23; Priv. Acts 1979, Ch. 97, § 2; Priv. Acts 1984, Ch. 192, § 4; Ord. No. 69, § 1, 4-9-90; Ord. No. 304, § 1, 7-25-05)

Sec. 12-43. Appeal from decision of board.

Within 60 calendar days following the publication of the decision of the board on any matter heard by it, either the involved employee or the appointing authority from whose order the appeal was taken may appeal the decision of the board to the circuit court or chancery court of the county.

(Priv. Acts 1971, Ch. 110, § 24; Ord. No. 304, § 2, 7-25-05)

Sec. 12-44. Layoff.

Notwithstanding the other provisions of this article, if conditions in any department or office of the county or the financial condition of the county necessitates a reduction in the work force, the required reduction shall be made in such class or classes as the appointing authority designates. Favorable consideration must, however, be given toward retention of those employees in the highest class of positions. If necessary to achieve their retention, employees may be temporarily demoted to a lower class of position. The determination as to which employees within a particular class are to be laid off rests with the sound discretion of the appointing authority and will be based on such considerations as service ratings, seniority and other relevant factors. Any employee laid off or temporarily demoted to a lower class of position under this section shall be given priority over other applicants to reinstatement to his former position or to a comparable position in the system.

(Priv. Acts 1971, Ch. 110, § 25)

Sec. 12-45. Discrimination prohibited.

All appointments and promotions in the system, except as otherwise provided under the provisions of this article, shall be on the basis of competitive examination, and no person in the system or seeking admission thereto shall be appointed, disciplined or dismissed, or in any way favored or discriminated against because of his/her political affiliation, sex, race, color, creed, age, religious belief or national origin. This section does not apply to membership in any organization which has advocated or does advocate disloyalty to or the violent overthrow of the government of the United States or any subdivision thereof.

(Priv. Acts 1971, Ch. 110, § 26)

State law references: Similar provisions, T.C.A. § 4-21-401.

Sec. 12-46. Political activity prohibited.

(b) Every employee will have the right freely to express his/her views as a citizen and to cast his vote. Coercion for political purposes of and by employees of federally aided programs and the use of their positions for political purposes will be prohibited.

Participation in partisan political activity by any employee subject to these standards will be prohibited with respect to activity prohibited in federally grant-aided programs under the Federal Hatch Political Activities Act, as amended (5 U.S.C. 1501-1508).

(c) This section is not intended to nor does it deprive any employee from voluntary participation in such proper political activity as is allowed by the policy of the county.

(Priv. Acts 1971, Ch. 110, § 27)

Sec. 12-47. Status of employees on effective date of system.

On the date which the system takes effect, any employee of the county, whose position is to be included in the classified service, shall be appointed to retain his/her position without being required to take a competitive examination. The appointment of any such employee who has held his/her position for more than six months prior to the effective date of the system shall be deemed complete and he shall hold his/her position until discharged or reduced in accordance with the provisions of this article.

(Priv. Acts 1971, Ch. 110, § 28)

Sec. 12-48. Contrary provisions of T.C.A. § 8-20-109 not applicable.
